I know there is a someone
I know there is a someone
I know there is a someone for me

I know there is a someone
I know there is a someone for me
And you're not pure unevil and even if you wanted
You're not pure unevil and even if you wanted some
And You're not pure unevil and even if you wanted
You're not pure unevil and even if you wanted some oh

In time the two of us set fire in the evening.

In the tombs there are walking corpses and I'm yellowing
Die together, let's die together die together die
together

yellowing
Die together, let's die together die together die
together
