You push a lot
You push a lot
You undid the wallpaper, made it so undressed
(In your head)

No attention (bad) (x4)
I'd rather be lost than found

I'll stick to reason, for chasing monsters
She's the mother of the ox and the devil
She's wonderful (just like you)

I'd rather be lost than found
Rather be heard than right
Rather be sick than dead
Rather be loved than not loved (again)
Leave your work at home put down your briefcase (x4)

Rather be cold than cruel
Rather be wrong than good
Rather be criss than cross
Rather loved than not loved (again)

I'd rather be lost than found
Rather be heard than right
Rather be sick than dead
Rather be loved than not loved (again)

(Should leave your work at home, put down your briefcase)
