Sell me a minute
I'll wait for you
All that you want
All that you want
In your life
Honesty
Nothing that you had before
All that you want
All that you want
Is some peace
A piece of me
Is that what you had in mind
It's your time
It's your life
It's your movie

It's your time
The writing is on the wall
On your forehead
And anything that I might have said
And anything you might have read
Do you still believe it?
And anything you might have heard
And anything you might have learned
Do you still believe it?
