"The Ha Ha Wall"

Visit "The Ha Ha Wall" on MotoLyrics.com

If you get tired of hanging around pick up a guitar and spin a web of sound And then you could be strung out all day with your lovers and clowns (but now I find myself hanging around..)

It's been a long war and we're tired and dirty still not dirty enough for you

I've been thieving, I stole the light from the dawn

But when you come round this ledge you wish you'd never been born
Oh, tell me you can see me
Oh, can't you see through it all?
I'm empty lost and lonely oh won't you heed my call?

It's been a long war, and we're so tired and dirty
Still not dirty enough for you, oh
