He's losing his intimacy
To cover a mountain of grief
He does what he can but he can't understand
And it's she
Who knows how to last in the lead
But can't understand how to read
The further she runs she can't understand
And she tries to relate with an intimate hand

Higher hope
You're infamously into us
Mark my words
Ambiguously acquiesce

He's gaining his intimacy
And looking for signs of relief
And the further she runs he can't understand
And it's she
Who's just figured out how to read
But losing her place in the lead
The further she runs she can't understand
And she tries to relate with an intimate hand
