It's seemingly a test
It's weening at it's best
It's streamingly keeping us concious

There's eating on the list
Is it really worth the risk?
Can't you see that time is running out?

I need you and
I plead you and
I seed you
We wrote a new story
I greet you and
I feed you and
I lead you
Rolling the story on and on. yeah

I want it to feel right
I want it to feel wrong
I want it to feel like
Creating a love song, a love song

Squeezing all the seeding out
Keep on feeding all the trout
Otherwise you'll be feeding the walrus

Another death a lesson learned
Well, they said the sun would burn
Rather weed than find a sudden drou

I need you and
I seed you and
I feed you
I wrote a new story
I greet you and
I eat you and
I breed you
Rolling the story on and on
