Who's to say you're alone when you're walking
More afraid that you'll all be alone, you know
Keep the pace when you do all that walking
And your face, oh they know, all alone

Won't you be my friend?
Won't you be my friend?

Watch your head, you roam again
Watch your head on ritalin
Just stop yourself, you roll again
You might just head alone

Whoa x4

Do the same 'till you do all the stalking
To their place, on their phone all alone, you know

Won't you be my friend?
Won't you be my friend?

Wont you stay alone?
Won't you be my friend?
