

Lich "Sin"

I came here to buy dull razor
And filthy lust temptation
Sometimes I feel disturbed
And I just can't clear my mind
Always wanted that happy face
Never shines for the pain and darkness
Still requiem my plaintiff hints
For an appeal that change our lives
All actions for negligence
Unsaid words will ever mean nothing

I couldn't leave you behind
Knowing that you hate me so

It's a sin

Giving up before the fight
But we don't want to realize
Don't pull the hatch of the slot machine
I afraid next time we won't be lucky
Don't let us fade away
Like the night and the day
Promise then if I shoot again
I'll try so hard to miss the target

I couldn't leave you behind
Knowing that you hate me so
It's a sin
