Alligator spy planes, smoother than crocs
This is evolution we can be proud of.
Don't tell anybody about the hole in the sea,
We're sitting on a landmine.

Guard these keys to the city,
With violent light and sonic boom!

Newsman- tell me something new today,
Is there a superman fighting off a meteor?
Darkman with the cape and cowl,
How long does this war, how long does this war go on?

So guard these keys to the city,
With violent light and silver streaks.

See the world just as another world that's trapped inside the moon's reflection.

The walls of the future will grow high,
Until we rise... until we rise...
Here we go!
Can you feel it?
It's about time!
