I awoke to a startling reality,
A Roman arch gathers only leaves it needs,
A pre-historic soul am I, yeah I respect time,
I looked in the mirror babe, and slowly started to wonder,

Was this really happening?
Or was this just another type of matrix?
When this world comes tumbling down,
Will we find our peace?

Pass the novacaine,
I got sick again,
(I'm sick of)
But I don't feel the same,
When I find my love in the
Lost and found.

But now I'm right back in, back into the thick of things,
I've learned to stay the hell away from exploding
atoms,
Have a look in the mirror babe and ask yourself why

You gave me everything but your love,
And what does that really amount to in the end?
Don't forget there's a sky up above,
That is limitless.

Pass the novacaine,
I got sick again,
(I'm sick of)
But I'm a touch insane!
When I find my love in the
Lost and found.

When I look back, I look back on it fondly...
It was a nuclear experiment!

When I find my love in the lost and found.
(You'd better wait till you're lonely)
