A fog in shades of blue,
I'm driving right out of this place, yeah

You drown in silence,
On a long and winding road,

Heading to the ocean,
Passing a mid-summer rain,
This is not a station,
I'm the original fall, original fall guy.

You fade in darkness,
On a solitary road,
Some things just don't have an answer,
It depends just what you're after,
One day you'll realize.

What? You think I'm just another sucka?
Well I got was coming to me,
What? You wanna beat down on this sucka?
I took what was coming to me,
Yeah, I took what was coming to me,
Did you take what was coming to you?
I took what was coming to me- yeah!...

You drown in darkness,
On this road to nowhere,
Nothing's gonna last forever!
It depends just what you're after,
One day you'll realize.

De da da da, de da da da da da...

But did you take what was coming to you?
But did you take what was coming to you?
Did you?
