

Life In Your Way "Beneath It All"

Visit "Beneath It All" on MotoLyrics.com

Beneath it all, this world bridges a hate
It will take us all down, down to ruin
I am being pushed all this way
A welcomed self-seeking livelihood, is a doom for all
Everything must recede, everything
We rip our hands through anything
And then we make it please ourselves
It these ways I can't change
Not even one step on my own, on my own...
Break the chains that hold
I've been kept so long
Break the chains, keep so long
Can someone help me through this mess,
The lies and the ties that bind
Do not be deceived
This will fade away
Can someone bring me to, bring me to the feet?
The feet of Jesus
