Swarm....

Swarming darkness.

Like a plague of locusts destroying everything it touches.

Devouring all that's good, leaving only barren waste.

And conquering your will, this is a pure addiction.

Don't be deceived; it's here to stay.

This will eat your flesh, drink your blood, crush your humanity.

You will shame your family for generations. You will shame your family.

This perverted thirst begging your end, hollowing your bones.

Stone on top of stone, on top of stone, drawing further down into a coward's hell, isolated and alone.

Leave this world behind. Cut off ties with razor's edge.

Beat down darkness, beat it back with...

Beat back darkness with brothers' arms and the Blood of the Lamb.

Beat down darkness with brothers' arms and the Blood of the Lamb.

Beat down darkness with brothers' arms and the Blood of the Lamb.

Beat down darkness with brothers' arms and the Blood of the Lamb.
