There's blood on the floor and you're
Not even moving
Don't really know if it's mine or yours
But you ain't moving

Eyes are wide as you grin at me
You know there's a place where you rather would be
If you should die and I survive
How could I go on knowing that I'm still alive?
Yeah, here breathing

There's a beast that's living deep within me
Forcing me to feed all my needs, yeah he's in me

And he brought us here to end our fears
To wave goodbye to all of the tears
To start a new life on the other side of the river, yeah

Well, my world would be over
My world would be over
My world would be over
My world would be over, yeah

Hold on, hold on, I won't be long
Wait for me, man, I won't be long, ooh, ooh

You were such in a rush to reach the other side
Look at yourself with that look in your eye
Smiling wide, preoccupied with that river

Well, my world would be over
My world would be over
My world would be over
My world would be over

World would be over
World would be over
World would be over
World would be over, yeah, over
