Have you ever woke up screaming?
Have you woken alone?
Walls around you won't stop laughing
Where do you go?

Sweat seeps in your eyes at night
And you realize
That no one understands you at all
That no one understands you at all

Well I was bound to have a nervous breakdown
Should've seen it come from miles away
Packed my bags and started running
Brain's been shaking since yesterday

There's only so far you can run, boy
Theres only so far to leave your problems behind
'Cause when the problem's yourself you start thinking
No matter how far, you'll never leave it behind

No one understands me at all
No one understands me, no

Now I'm 22 with still no clue
Of who I am or what I'm supposed to be
I know it to you it sounds funny
You've got it worked out like it's a fuckin' disease

Started asking myself do I fit in?
Where I belong, could this really be me?
Been feeling downright ugly
Tell me is this the way it's supposed to be?

So what's the difference?
You're doing fine
The clock keeps ticking
As you lose your mind

The one you need to call you, never calls
Sweat seeps in your eyes at night
And you realize
That no one understands you at all

Sweat seeps in your eyes at night
And you realize
That no one understands you at all

Sweat seeps in your eyes at night
And you realize
That no one understands you at all

No one understands you at all
No one understands you at all

No one understands me at all
No one understands me at all
No one understands me at all
No one understands me at all
