If tomorrow never shows
I want you all to know
That I loved you all, you're beautiful
And I had myself a ball

I've wasted so much precious time
Been skating along these fine lines
Now these weeds have grown
Where the sun once shone
And my life has passed me by

And my life has passed me by
And I don't know why

I keep searching for something that I never found
While these weeds get deeper as I turn around
And time grows older and I've grown colder
So long has passed that I forgot to count

And these weeds have grown
Where the sun once shone
And I can feel it

Today I cut off all the ties
I've been led blind for all this time
But somewhere in between the lies
Are the hearts and minds of those who tried

And although I've heard your lies
And I don't know why

I keep searching for something that I never found
While these weeds get deeper as I turn around
And time grows older and I've grown colder
So long has passed that I forgot to count

And these weeds have grown
Where the sun once shone
And I can feel it

This space between us
This space between us

This space between us
This space between us

And my life has passed me by
And I don't know why

I keep searching for something that I never found
While these weeds get deeper as I turn around
And time grows older and I've grown colder
So long has passed that I forgot to count

And these weeds have grown
Where the sun once shone
And I can feel it
And these weeds have grown
Where the sun once shone
And I can feel it

This space between us
This space between us
This space between us
This space between us
This space between us
