You probably heard all about it
You probably heard every word
It didn't take long for them to spread it
It didn't take long to spread the word

And you can whisper if you want to
But you could call me what you will
And you can cower in the corner, corner
And you can say it to my grill

As smiles come from the fake ones
But they'll pretend to be your friends
They'll cut you down just to have fun
They kiss your ass to make amends

And you can whisper if you want to
But you could call me what you will
And you can cower in the corner, corner
And you can say it to my grill

And I wish I may and I wish I might
And I wish I may and I wish I might
And I wish I may and I wish I might

You never know who really starts it
You never know who's talking shit
In the end it doesn't matter
'Cause in the end they're all on your list

And you can whisper if you want to
But you could call me what you will
And you can cower in the corner, corner
Or you can say it to my grill

And I wish I may and I wish I might
And I wish I may and I wish I might
And I wish I may and I wish I might
And I wish I may and I wish I might

And I wish I may and I wish I might
And I wish I may and I wish I might
And I wish I may and I wish I might

And I wish I may and I wish I might

Don't leave me out, don't let me down

Don't leave me out, don't let me down

You spotless jellyfish, you spotless jellyfish
