Remember when the simple things
Were the things we loved
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Remember when just living
Was simply enough
Yeah, yeah, yeah
But fears fill the emptiness
And years fill everything in between

All this time is passing by
All the way I've had to say goodbye
Oh, my life begins today
After all, I've walked I've crawled
I've loved along the way

Fly away into the sun
Never to return
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Stay awake forever
Watch this lifetime burn
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Peace breaks the loneliness
And hope fills everything between.

All this time is passing by
All the way I've had to say goodbye
Oh, my life begins today
After all, I've walked I've crawled
I've loved along the way

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Walking down this road I've learned to let go
Of what I know 'cause everything can change again
I'm on the edge of all that could be
Well what I can't control could control my dreams

Remember when the days
We would never seemed to end
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Remember when we couldn't
Wait for life to begin
Yeah, yeah, yeah

All the answers I've found
Are away are few and far between

All this time is passing by
On the way I've had to say goodbye
Oh, my life begins today
After all, I've walked I've crawled
I've loved along the way
