I can feel you step away now
It's all about these things I've grown to learn
Is there no way to moving hearts around
But I'm climbing on top
Right over your barricade
Never gonna stop
There ain't no keeping me away

Did you think I wouldn't notice
When you're building those aside yourself
When your words leave me defenceless
I'm climbing on top
Right over your barricade
Never gonna stop
There ain't no keeping me away

I'm in your blindspot now
Falling through your cloud
Reaching for you inside out
To bring you back around

Now I'm right back where I started
Here to give you the best of my love
Just when you think I walk away now
I'm climbing on top
Right over you barricade
Never gonna stop
There ain't no keeping me away
There ain't no keeping me away
