I am content to be in content melt or break through your walls of crust give me something that I can hold as I'm trying to make my way up this stream of dust lead me up to where you are let me feel the sun

spin me around back and forth until you're down

did you taste god's lemonade
am I doing fine
well I never felt so lame till you changed my mind

I find it funny that look of lemon on your face always the first in line but you still feel out of place strange how you start to hate all that you used to love and now that you will become is what you used to make fun of

until I'm down

am I doing fine
until you changed my mind

am I doing fine
I'm drowning inside your ring and do it one more time

am I doing fine

yeah I'm alright
