"Goodbye"

take you and slow down drown your sorrows in a bowl of pain now you've got the confidence you have the smile fool everybody even yourself for awhile

so take your suffering
and be done with you
I am sorry I can't come there with you so pack your pain in a suitcase full of lies I guess this is where we say goodbye

oh I'm so complicated I was so torn between two lies don't you said you're growing up and what you became I think I changed into a different version of the same

was the last time you bring me down nothing's the same
now that you're not around everything has changed
