Loneliness

Pacing up and down these hallways
Second guessing every thought

Mystified

Just spinning 'round in circles
Drowning in the silent screaming
With nothing left to say

Every time I reach for you
There's no one there to hold on to
Nothing left for me to miss
I'm letting go, letting go of this

Lost my mind thinking it through
The light inside has left me too
Now I know what empty is
I've had enough, had enough of this

I believe

That love should be a reason
To give and get back in return

I wanna breathe

In a new beginning
With someone who will wrap her arms
Around what's left of me

Every time I reach for you
There's no one there to hold on to
Nothing left for me to miss
I'm letting go, letting go of this

Lost my mind thinking it through
The light inside has left me too
Now I know what empty is
I've had enough, had enough of this

Inside I'm barely holding on There's something that's already gone
Inside of me the world is in this all alone

Every time I reach for you
There's no one there to hold on to
Nothing left for me to miss
I'm letting go of this

Lost my mind thinking it through
The light inside has left me too
Now I know what empty is
I've had enough, had enough of this

Every time I reach for you
There's no one there to hold on to
Nothing left for me to miss
I'm letting go, letting go of this

Lost my mind thinking it through
The light inside has left me too
Now I know what empty is
I've had enough, had enough of this
I've had enough, had enough of this
