know that there are days when your life feels like your grave you stand in the choice you've made we gotta end this wait we know a way to live

so stop stand still for a minute if you will
got a pocket full of sunshine
a hand full of time
we don't have to talk about the ones that we can't live without cause everybody needs somebody it's just an ordinary pain

we only come to be in all the places where you've been we stare you in the face as someone to erase what already has been done

just an ordinary pain

everybody needs somebody
