Can't change this feeling
I'm way out of touch
I can't change this meaning
It means too much
I've Never been this lonely
I've never felt so good
I Can't be the only one misunderstood
Cos I remind myself of somebody else
I'm Feeling like I'm chasing
Like I'm facing myself alone
Well I've got somebody else's thoughts in my head
I want some of my own
I want some of my own
I want some of my own
Can you see me up here
Would you bring me back down
Cause I've been living to see my fears
As they fall to the ground
Cos I remind myself of somebody else
I'm Feeling like I'm chasing
Like I'm facing myself alone
I've got somebody else's thoughts in my head
I want some of my own
I want some of my own
I want some of my own
Am I hiding behind my doubts
Are they hiding behind me
Closer to finding out
It doesn't mean anything
Well I remind myself of somebody else now
I'm Feeling like I'm chasing
Like I'm facing myself alone
Well I've got somebody else's thoughts in my head
I want some of my own
I want some of my own
I want some of my own
