Change has never felt so good
Change has never been so hard
It ended up the way It should
Will It ever stop? Yeah It never stops

I did everything I could
I even gave you my heart
Maybe I misunderstood
Who you really are, who you really are

I want you to know
I want you to see
That what happens next Is not up to me
Yeah, I let you go
I haven't look back
You had the last word, yeah I'll give you that
But what happens next? What happens next?

Silence has never felt so cold
Distance never felt so far
History has never felt so old
I forget how It starts
I forget how It starts

I want you to know
I want you to see
That what happens next Is not up to me
Yeah, I let you go
I haven't look back
You had the last word, yeah I'll give you that
But what happens next? What happens next?

I thought I saw your face tonight
Maybe I miss you by my side
You'll always be In the back of my mind

I want you to know
I want you to see
That what happens next Is not up to me
Yeah, I let you go
I haven't look back

You had the last word, yeah I'll give you that
But what happens next? What happens next?
What happens next? What happens next?
