So many friendships feel like lies
And when I look back now
There was so many times
You made me wanna die
I'll take this knife from my back
I'll send you too whatever god you want
You fucking joke

Tides will turn
Taking advantage of my friends
You forever in debt too me
Motherfucker you're as good as dead

Your victims insecurities are what fuel you
But what you didn't see
Is we see right through you

You are fucking dead
You're so fucking dead too me!
You are fucking dead
