Take another hit and it makes me big again
In, out around my head again
Here and I'm never givin' up
'Cause I don't wanna leave today

My situation declines
The tension rises above
Everything I see

Let it go
(Go, go)
Let it, let it
Let it go
(Go, go)
You can't have everything now

One more hit and I forget again
Now I'm on my back again
Down and I'm not gettin' up
'Cause I don't wanna move today

My motivation declines
The temperature rises above
Everything I feel

Let it go
(Go, go)
Let it, let it
Let it go
(Go, go)
You can't have everything

Let it go
(Go, go)
Let it, let it
Let it go
(Go, go)
You can't have everything now

You've seen this happen before
You know, it's not a mistake
If you've seen this before you'll see it again

You fell asleep when I was awake

You left me blind, left behind
When all I feel is hate
And all I hate
All I've hated

Let it go
(Go, go)
Let it, let it
Let it go
(Go, go)
You can't have everything

Let it go
(Go, go)
Let it, let it
Let it go
(Go, go)
You can't have everything now

You can't have everything now
You can't
