Don't go getting yourself in a knot
Looking for the story but you have no plot
Communication lines are starting to rot
And I can't give you what I haven't got

If I could make the world stop still for you
I wouldn't waste another moment thinking it through
But the capabilities I have not
And I can't give you what I haven't got

You wanted me to be
Something that I can't see
You wanted me to do
Something that I can't do

And it's always just the same
And I'm still playing in this endless game
I wonder if you even know my name
And I can't give you what I haven't got

Go!

You wanted me to be
Something that I can't see
You wanted me to do
Something that I can't do

So don't go getting yourself in a knot
Looking for the story but you have no plot
Communication lines are starting to rot
And I can't give you what I haven't got
(can't give you what I haven't got)

Take the car, the house, the dog, the boat
The whole fucking lot
I can't give you what I haven't got
(can't give you what I haven't got)

I can't give you what I haven't got
