Oh it was so nice this towns a paradise
Sidewalks burning and so your locked inside your room
It's just a calm before the changing tide
It was so simple now theres things to sign

And someones always waiting round with matches by their side
And someones sneaking in the office getting high

Oh Oh it's a common action
It's a perfect scene
Lets write about it in a magazine everyones so excited it's the next big thing
Just the latest chapter
It's a total dram
