Well she's been down this road before
Fucked up again now she's kissing the floor
She got sober but now she's falling over
Dressed to kill, her panties filled with dollar bills
But she's been down this road before
Fucked up again now she's kissing the floor
She wasted another night
Just trying to find what's wrong with her life
She's wasted but looking fine
Someone call an ambulance
She's under the influence
I never thought an overdose would look so fucking
obvious
Someone call an ambulance
She's lost all consciousness
I never thought an overdose would look so fucking
obvious
She wasted another night
Just trying to find what's wrong with her life
She's wasted but looking fine
She s a hot mess but one hell of a good time
