Hey, it's me.

Six-foot me,
From down the street
I drive by (drive by)

To say "hi," (mm)
And you be

My baby,
Though sometimes we

Fuss and fight
Then you leave,
Not to-night.

(Just see) (refrain)

Love ev-er-y inch of your body
The scent of your skin I can't live without it
Wanna scream, shout it (eh)
Tell the world about it
(you should know)
Your love is supreme
You're everything I dream
Your soul the same (babe)
The summer, spring
You're the queen of queens

Nefertiti

Set me straight, no cha-ser
Let's give a late wake-up

Girl please tell me now, this:
Do

I give

You ev-

'Ry-thi-ing?

The misunderstandings

The nights all alone
Took too many chances, babe

I had to learn the hard way

The good and the bad (good and the bad)

The times that we shared

The fun that we had

I'll never forget in gettin' old

Your love is contagious
How can I say this
I don't wanna leave this space - Laaaawd, help me,
Jesus! (ooh, ohh)

(refrain)

Love every inch of your body
The scent of your skin I can't live without it
Wanna scream & shout it (ooh, babe)
Tell the world about it
(you should know)
Your love is supreme

You're everything I dream
Your soul the same
The summer, spring
You're the queen of queens

Nefertiti (sooo)

God sent me an an-gel (God sent me an angel) to Keep me from life's dangers (from life's dangers).

You were set
On this earth (set on this earth) to

Be the

Cen-ter

Of

My u-ni-verse.
