Grieving over you, babe, darling, I have almost lost my mind
I been grieving over you, babe, till I have almost lost my mind
Yes, you know, it have settled on my brain, and it almost drove me blind

You know, I can't eat for thinking, you know, and I can't hardly see for crying
You know, I can't eat for thinking, I can't hardly see for crying
Yes, you know, it have settled on my brain, and it have almost drove me blind

I done grieved over you, woman, till I done got weak in my knees
I done grieved over you, baby, till I done got weak in
my knees
Yes, I'm just wandering around this world and I ain't got nobody to care for me
