"Lovin' Arms"

I can remember, when I was layin' up in your lovin'
arms
I can remember, when I was layin' up in your lovin'
arms
Sounds like I could hear "just take it easy Lightnin' ",
You don't have to worry because she's already home
Such a long time
Yes, you know it would drive a poor man 'way from home
Such a long time
Do you know that 'd drive a poor man away from his home?
Whoa, he got the Misses out, when he can't lay up in her Lovin' arms
(Spoken: All right, I got to play right here)
