The usual dreams, the usual schemes
Same lost feelings, same bad day dreams
So unreal and delirious
I'm out of breath and I'm out of luck

Sometimes when I wake up slowly
Paralyzed by the fears within me
Waiting for today to happen
Waiting for a vague impression
Waiting for today to happen
Waiting here with nothing but disaster

Nailed tight to this bed forever
Turn out the lights, tomorrow, whatever

I'm all hung over here with sleep
All I want to do is dream and dream and dream
Just lie down and never leave
Put myself here at your knees

Sometimes when I wake up slowly
Paralyzed by the fears within me
Waiting for today to happen
Waiting for a vague impression
Waiting for today to happen
Waiting here with nothing but disaster

Nailed tight to this bed forever
Turn out the light tomorrow, whatever

Sometimes when I wake up slowly
Paralyzed by the fears within me
Waiting for today to happen
Waiting for a vague impression
Waiting for today to happen
Waiting here with nothing but disaster
