Verse 1

Here in the stillness the quiet place where I'm lying with a downturn face you come and distract me from what's coming at me Give me something to look forward to truth be told, sometimes it's only you nothing is at stake here
When we are awake here

Chorus

It's you who brings the morning and you who takes the sun when I sleep you're the only one who stuck around for me, when I was losing Faith in what I thought I would be you're the only one in the dark I see

The dark I see x2

Verse 2

I know I lose my heart so easily try to only show the best of me I go into hiding each time I stop trying Oh you, remind me of the little things Till I forget the part that's troubling and I feel so much better
When we are together

Chorus

The dark I see x2
