What now?
We're riding faster up the hill
Into the sunset
And don't look now, shield your eyes
The sun is brighter on the other side
And if your dreams do come true
You gotta first wake up, first wake up
Don't waste time dead at night
Cause you'll never live your life
If you're sleeping all the time

These dreams never fade
To the sleepers that can say
"We've opened up our eyes
And we'll prove that we're alive" (x2)

What now?
We're falling faster down this hill
Into the sunset
So smile now, dry your eyes
There's nothing like the feeling
When you've come to realize
These dreams, they will come true
You gotta first wake up, first wake up
Reach out through the other side
Leave behind the black and white
You'll never live your life
If you're sleeping all the time

These dreams never fade
To the sleepers that can say
"We've opened up our eyes
And we'll prove that we're alive" (x4)
