Why cant we just open up put your arms around me cause it feels so right your leg's touching mine paid for a quarter this night is half over why cant we just feel the same i will be there for everything and i hope you know i feel this way cause im never gonna leave no im never gonna leave this place gotta tell me when your coming home to the place where ive been patiently waiting for you cause here's the truth this might be too soon cause you cant fight a feeling you know is right when you feel it too why cant we just open up put your arms around me cause it feels so right your leg's touching mine paid for a quarter this night is half over why cant we just feel the same i will be there for everything and i hope you know i feel this way cause im never gonna leave no im never gonna leave this place the innocence girl tells me im safe we got a whole lot of trust and honesty to give ill make it easy to say how i feel cause thats how i roll if this is more than you can handle i guess ill see you again someday when you grow up to find out you made a mistake by saying im so sorry why cant we just open up put your arms around me cause it feels so right your leg's touching mine paid for a quarter this night is half over why cant we just feel the same i will be there for everything and i hope you know i feel this way cause im never gonna leave no im never gonna leave this place
