Seize the day
What if it is our last one?
We're the gap that they will never bridge
Until the day
Someone stands behind me
Now that I have self-control
We take a chance
We've got to go and get some
We're the colour that they'll never see
Until the day
Someone stands behind me
Now that I can see my soul

Seeing through their illusion
I can deal with my confusion
I can really see what's there to do
Gotta take time to venture
Gotta fight it just like cancer
This is really it
Goodbye, so long

Seize the day
What if it is the last one?
We're the gap that they will never bridge
Until the day
Someone stands behind me
Now that I have self-control
We take a chance
We've got to go and get some
We're the colour that they'll never see
Until the day
Someone stands behind me
Now that I can see my soul

Got to see through their illusion
Got to help with my confusion
Can't see when I turn what's right or wrong
Gotta take time to venture
Gotta fight it just like cancer
This is really it
Goodbye, so long

Seize the day
What if it is your last one?
We're the gap that they will never bridge
We take a chance
Someone to stand behind me
Now that I've got self-control
We take a chance
What if it is our last one?
We're the gap that they will never bridge
Until the day
Someone stands behind me
