You know there's nothing underwater
I'm changing my tune within a lovers dune
Pass this cloak, I'll wrap you in ember
It's better to fly than never reach the sky

Every second that you run away
Makes me miss you more and more
Haven't eaten for days and days
Torture in a southern law
I miss you, I miss you

Deep breath and dream a little longer
I'm watching you grow, an idol of my own
Pass this cloak and wrap you in ember
It's better to fly than never reach the sky

Every second that you run away
Makes me miss you more and more
Haven't eaten for days and days
Torture in a southern law
I miss you, I miss you

Every second that you run away
Makes me miss you more and more
Haven't eaten for days and days
Torture in a southern law
I miss you, I miss you

Every second that you run away
Makes me miss you more and more
I haven't eaten for days and days
Torture in a southern law
I miss you, I miss you
