Visit "Breathe Again" on MotoLyrics.com

This one's for you
You know who you are the one whose song
(Isn't mine anymore)
So here I stand right outside your door and I'm (Waiting on you)

Holding on to you the things you never knew Oceans should never come between the sun and the moon
And time should never matter to me and you

I'll be a ghost beside you, let me take your hand
(But you don't feel a thing)
Wanted to stay so I could make you breathe again

Praying for a sign
Kiss me one more time

Oceans should never come between the sun and the
moon
And time nothing will ever matter...
Nothing will ever matter...

I still feel, I still love
Remember that
I still fell, I still love you...

I just wanted to stay
Wanted to stay
