Climb down from your sky
My wish to hold you
Take me through what's missing
And I promise

I won't lose myself again
Knowing that soon you'll turn away

Bring me to the light
Get me through the night
Bring me to the light
And maybe I'll
Keep you
Again

I feel like this won't count
I'd like to gain this for you
This place and time won't forget
Cause I'm so unlike you

I won't lose myself again
Knowing that soon you will turn away

Bring me to the light
Get me through the night
Bring me to the light
And maybe I'll
Keep you
Again

Bring me to the light
Get me through the night
Bring me to the light
And maybe I'll
Keep you
Again
