Chicosci Manila Teenage Death Squad Lyrics

The sun is down again
The killing flags are up
We're beautiful in black
The things nightmares are made of with painted eyes
A million hearts will stop the voices cry
Tonight! Tonight! Tonight!
We've nothing to hide
We confess to the murders of a million souls
Another dance in the dark
Where we are never alone
We confess to the murders of a million souls
Another dance in the dark
And we are home
with painted eyes
A million hearts will stop the voices cry
Tonight! Tonight! Tonight!
We've nothing to hide
For now, the streets of Manila run red
A million hearts will stop the voices cry
Tonight! Tonight! Tonight!
We've nothing to hide
A million hearts will stop the voices cry
Tonight! Tonight! Tonight!
We've nothing to hide
