"To Cleanse"

my heart bends inverted fire in a daze

we wake up in shells of wrongness maybe this all will pass dreaming so out of the way is all this real? no symptoms of regret we're flying ecstatic

the sun so inviting and maybe we'll taste it with patience just get them out of the way

why do these feelings interfere?
nobody said this would be mine

why do these feelings interfere?
am i so wrong?

is all this real?
