She said to me
I've had enough, the fire's leaving
Time to fade away
Hold my hand, and whisper a prayer
I'm by your side, promise me
Your shadow stays forever
So stay with me
Your body and blood
Are those that keep me alive
This won't be your last breath, I know
I could see the tears form in your eyes
But we've almost made it
It will break my heart to see you go
Because we almost made it
You're so far gone
They left you alone
The angels will save me
And I saw you there
You poisoned your friends and danced with the devil
Wake up again
We're given a chance
The chemicals are waiting
Let's clean your wounds
Darling, tell me you don't want to leave us at all
This won't be your last breath, I know
I could see the tears form in your eyes
But we've almost made it
It will break my heart to see you go
Because we almost made it
There's no way down
There's no way down
No Darling, not tonight
No darling, not tonight

I could see the tears form in your eyes
But we've almost made it
It will break my heart to see you go
Because we almost made it
I could see the tears form in your eyes
But we've almost made it
It will break my heart to see you go
Because we almost made it

This will not be your last breath (fading)
No darling, Not tonight (fading)
