Take another right
Make another wrong
All we do is fight and
Write another song

So fly into the light
Look's like no one's home
It's just another night
You'll have to spend alone

Don't be afraid
One more life to save

Go, fire-filled skies with arrows
Expose your shadow

No one left to save me,

I have to save everybody else
No one left to shape me
Who comes when I cry help?
No one can save me
No one can see my face
This love I'm feeling has found no resting place

Don't be afraid one
One more life to save

Go, fire-filled skies with arrows
Expose your shadow

You won't recognize me
Arrows
