Keep your voice low
Keep your head down
Don't make any sudden movement
We worked too hard to get through this
Keep your fingers crossed in your pocket
I am telling you right now
This is the last time that i'll turn my head away

Keep your voice low
Keep your head down
Don't make any sudden movement
We worked too hard to get through this
Keep your fingers crossed in your pocket
I am telling you right now
This is the last time that i'll turn my head away

Say it again, its how it should end
Say it again, its how it should end
This is all you left me to
And i can't say that i blame you
This casket wasn't built for two
This casket wasn't built for...two

Let your breathing do the talking
Slow it up, or speed it down
Just stop staring at the ground
Take your time and think this over
We have all been here before
Now i'm too far out i'm too far out the door

Say it again, its how it should end
Say it again, its how it should end
This is all you left me to
And i can't say that i blame you
This casket wasn't built for two
This casket wasn't built for two
This is all you left me to
And i can't say that i blame you
This casket wasn't built for two
This casket wasn't built for two

This is
All I
Have to
Give you (haven't you had enough)

And in the end you never wanted
This it goes to show there's nothing to be missed
The lights come up and the reel winds down
There's no love left in our little town
(til end..)
