In my own state of mind Sittin here all alone Thinkin bout the lady of mine Damn i did her wrong all the things that i promised to her how can i turn around and bring this much drama to her boy im sorry, i was selfish and i know it hurted but i aint did that on purpose aint nobody perfect so i just want to tell ya baby if you ever leave me i gotta a leave you in my heart that aint gon never leave me at times i use to treat you like you just another hoe but we would both always know that you deserved mo' i know you did yo life for me baby i aint lying, im genuwine and ive been feeling that the whole time so check this out, if you should ever find a new dude dont you go and forget a thang that i told you like you the one, and everythang come before you and i aint been runnin no game this the whole truth...boo

chrous x2
if you should ever find someone knew know he better be good to you

(verse 2)
[??] where my home at on the real i cant see you with another cat the way i feel, like dont a thang come above you make me feel i cant let another man love you boo i hate to see another man stare at you let alone let another man have you but you already know that i aint sad [?] dont wanna let you go but shit im prepared to but if i had a choice i wouldnt be without you i know you know that i would rather be beside you hand in hand every step so i can guide you and i know you can tell it but im inside you the reason we aint always seein eye to eye boo cuz i aint one of those guys who gon lie to you if you slip up and let another man blide you make sure nothing but the best that he provides you oh yeah

chrous x2

(verse 3)

you going to somebody else i aint tryin see it but knowing that i gave you so many reasons to leave me i can already see it, and all the trust that we had here after years and years i never thought it all dissappear but all my secrets have not been revealed its over now, and i think if we both try it can be rebuild but if not, i aint trippin here im still your nigga, if you ever need love you can get it here and it dont matter what he done to ya you got a problem you just holla and you watch how fast i run to ya no matter where you at im comin to ya just look over your shoulders for me yo, this soldier i aint far from ya my life is full of dark nights you the star to me and cant nobody else have you i already took you but if shit doesnt go as planned...look here chrous till fade
