intro

(quote)

friendship is the hardest thing in the world to explain it's not somethin you learn in school but if you haven't learned the meanin' of friendship you really haven't learned anything

~chorus

i know sometimes i forget to show it but homeboy you should always know it you should know that i'm down for life cuhz you're down for life
so we're down for life
so we're down for life

from the beginnin' all the way to the present my dogs been a gift cuhz they are my best friends never knew phony homies ever since fake aint an issue cuhz love don't pretend and i know that the road that i choose to ride you show that the homie in you will ride so i dont worry cuhz i know that you don't lie truth be told, you get me up but you're down for life i know it sounds cliché, but hey you was there for me about everday anytime i need a shoulder just to lean on or even a soldier just to be strong you were never gone, showed that you were the one that i could go to when i'm feelin' hopeless the one i can talk to when i aint focused you stepped up, said what? crazed you better get up when i was fed up, you said keep your head up and instead of doing things that i would regret if i didn't have doe, you gave me bread and durin' all the times i felt i was gon' die you told me not to worry cuhz you'll always be with me that's my homie for real cuhz you're down for life

so we're down for life

so young, so fun, when the boys would come show so much love even when we get dumb when you couldn't breathe through stress, i gave my lungs

put one and one together kid we still make one that's what becomes, the definition of love my heart, my life, i'll give you all the above ride til we die fo life and i, know you by my side when i need a guide cuhz you're always there with me and you always cared for me when it gets so hard, stress from my job you show you got the power to help me like you're God and i know i don't need to show i'm feelin' down cuhz you're down for life remember when my cousin done passed away you helped me cry my tears to pass away cuhz my homies are down til the latest days and when i crash on the path you grab my hands and say
"don't worry, don't worry, i'm always here for you so just holla at me" so i know that you're more than a friend your hands extend, more than it needs to you're here, more than i need you i read you my sins, you lead me to win, and when i need someone to ease my pain my heart leads me to see you again cuhz you're here for me til the end

chorus

times get hard,
whenever i'm reminded of my moms and pops and i try to stop the tear shed, still can't but through the years my homies show me that the only thing i need is to speak my fears and they're still be here for real, for real, they'll always be here i hold on tight and i i hold on strong and i i always go right cuz i don't wanna go wrong and my boys i dedicate you this song cuz you made my disfunctional house a happy home i can't repay you for what you gave me cuz you're like jesus, you came to save me when my days get hazy, my eyez get hazy you open up the lids, showin' the kid that you're more than a homeboy you're like my brother from another mother stay down as long as you live man, i know boy
