It's been a few years now, time flies
It was like yesterday, i was wiping my eyes From my cries of you leavin' my life

But i realize when i cry, well you up in paradise Don't get me wrong,
i still miss you to this day

And i wish you could witness your little cousin on the stage
but some things change,
it's the way things go

21st birthday-
probably got your wings
and halo
but you always been an angel in disguise

now stuntin' to an
angel in the skies
step back put your picture to the side

close my eyes with my head up high reminisce your life thinkin' 'bout the times we had way back we were reppers flashbacks to the past ain't as bad as i expect i expect it was but you ain't gone, you just live in the sky

you had one life to live and you were
too sick to die

take my hand and
hold it tight, i

will never let go no
not for life (4x)

hey boy, how you livin'
up in heaven cuz?
even though you ain't
here you know that we still sending love

now i know you stay
true up there
'cause i look outside,
the sky's blue up there

recall the night i have
you ride in my car
you said 'keep on
rhymin' in no time
you'll be a star"

well, you don't know this
but i took that to
heart
and i use the word to motivate me to get this far and now i'm doing big things like you said i would

and i now i'm gonna make it one day 'cause you said i could

'cause if i want it bad enough it'll end up good you supported me, not too many understood

i don't think you understand how much you meant to me but things happen for a reason, this was meant to be cause no there's nothing hard, you livin' heavenly and since life goes on, i hope you rest in peace

hey slim, you weren't
like anyone else
when i called for you,
you never hesitate to help

so the day you left i can't express how i felt that it hurts to talk to you 'cause it's like
talking to myself

but i know you hear me
loud and clear
'cause the only thing
between us is the
clouds and air

man, i can't wait to see you again
great granddaddy way up high, i know you with them and your great uncle too, the one that past from cancer i know you up there with them now, as happy as ever and not to mention your sister you lost you

were younger
who'da thought, a few years, you'd be together

i'm done mourning your death, i'm celebratin' your life whenever darkness falls, eventually it gets bright

so yeah, i'ma make it through, i'll manage
and by the way, i don't love you to death - i love you past it

not for life (out)
