Put my pistol forward so i dont get knocked down, you think that i'll always be around? what goes around comes around one day i'll leave and then you will see how much you truly miss me, and even if you dont it doesnt matter anyways theres clouds above my sky but ill see a bedder day so do what you must and be with another guy, what did you think i was gonna lay down and die? hell no! I'll find someone knew someone to help me thru this time of weakness picking it up by stress

never realising i dont need you more or less its time for me to get on and find some happiness with someone that see's that ill be there for her as long as shes always there for me this pain i dont need so if you wanna leave you know i'll set you free just dont come back to me, erase you from my memory

I cant believe that this is happening to me you want to leave well then go ahead and leave i'll set you free just dont come back to me erase you from my memory ,erase you from my memory.(repeat 2)

And all those times we argued and it wasnt my fault but i told you i was sorry so that it could be resolved and sometmies i wish that we have never met at all you had me on my knees but i would never crawl.

chosen your friends over your man, i should have known then but now i know i can walk away from you and leave you alone, why did you have to break a happy home? Go with the one that you chose before me and staying away from you is something i garentee, you cant take it back cause i made a decision and now im taking off into a higher devision. Somebody lie you wont let know buddy bring them down and thats why i stay high and i'll never come down and if i knew then what i know now i would have never stayed would have never stayed around.

I cant believe that this is happening to me you want to leave well then go ahead and leave i'll set you free just dont come back to me erase you from my memory ,erase you from my memory.(repeat 2)

i heard you say that you'll do better without me if its true get on cause all you do is dought me . you stick around just to hold me down is what it seems because when i need you ,your never there for me.making up excuses and telling all those lies.you think that im stuipid? i know theres stuff you hide. I'll give you my turst but i'll never give you my pride i'll kick you out of my life and never let you back inside.You acted like you didnt care but now were gonna see,i know that one day you'' be running back to me.Eventually you'll be just a memory someone to forget someone not to sweat.Giving all these reasons now i know why im sad not because you left but that gurl i thought i had. I didnt want to face it, its something that i knew but now im looking through the eyes of a changed mans view.

I cant believe that this is happening to me you want to leave well then go ahead and leave i'll set you free just dont come back to me erase you from my memory ,erase you from my memory.(repeat 2)

thats right your looking through the eyes of a changed mans view,my eyes are wide Open now.Its to late for you though,i'll fnid someone knew.Erase you from my memory.
